

SENSORY MOTOR EDUCATION FOR THE MOUTH AND JAW

Conducted by

Mark Reese, Ph.D. and David Zemach-Bersin, M.A.

Mark Reese & David Zemach-Bersin

Sensory Motor Education For the Mouth and Jaw

1984

These innovative ATM lessons were designed specifically for people with TMJ Syndrome and problems of the mouth and jaw. They systematically address and improve every aspect of mouth and jaw functioning and will give you a wealth of material for ATM as well as Functional Integration lessons. This popular program is intended for use by both teachers and students and is being used in physical therapy and dental clinics throughout the U.S.

CONTENT

- 01 Cardinal movements of the jaw
- 02 Relating the tongue and the jaw
- 03 Connecting the head and the jaw
- 04 Clarifying movements of the jaw and skull
- 05 Improving the jaw through the spine
- 06 Relating the lips to the jaw
- 07 Learning how the eyes affect the jaw
- 08 Using awareness to improve the jaw
- 09 How the pelvis affects the entire body
- 10 Coordinating the pelvis and the jaw

Copyright 1984 Sensory Motor Learning Systems
Berkeley, CA

Archived Resource - 5 x audio cassette tapes